Sherrills Ford Small Area Plan

Guiding Principles:

- Balanced land uses with mixture of housing, shopping and employment
- Pedestrian-oriented development
- “Main Street” village in Terrell
- Retail development – well-planned integrated retail with varying size and functions
- Livability and design quality – sense of place and quality development to create visually attractive environment
- Flexibility in regulations

Sherrills Ford Small Area Plan

Recommendations:

- High-density corridor (1/2-acre lots) along Sherrills Ford Road, Beatty Road and Island Point Road where public waterlines exist
- Medium-density (3/4-acre lots) along Lake Norman
- Remainder of Sherrills Ford district low-density (2-acre lots)
- Multi-family along Hwy. 150 corridor, village center and regional commercial at Hwy. 150/16

Sherrills Ford Small Area Plan

Recommendations:

- Explore tool to transfer development rights from rural areas to areas that can support development
- Village center at Sherrills Ford Rd/Hwy. 150 – mixed residential, commercial and office uses. Include architectural standards.
- Enhanced development standards along Hwy. 150 corridor
